STATINTL

1. [REDACTED] in Training called to inquire about the possibility of one or two Congressmen addressing the JOT group in one or more courses dealing with concepts of the American system generally. We were to both consider this and come up with potential candidates in a week or so, having in mind the difficulties that might be encountered if selections were made now with the forthcoming elections. ✓

2. [REDACTED] (SR) and Legislative Counsel met with Congressman Robert H. Michel (R., Illinois) to discuss his recent trip in Europe which included visits in Moscow and Prague. Mr. Michel was interested in the fact that the Agency did follow travel of this type. He was very pleasant during the interview. In addition, he passed to us a message and several medals from an [REDACTED] as to be passed by the Congressman at the request of this individual to [REDACTED] is well-known to the Agency and [REDACTED] is following up on this as an [REDACTED] (See Memorandum for the Record for full details.)

3. Attempted to see Congressman Bob Wilson today but in his absence discussed the matter with Leon Parma in his office who was familiar with the situation. Slight additional information on the case of [REDACTED] was furnished with an indication that there was little that the Agency could offer on this which had been the previous indication.
